ARE YOU A SALTY RAT??

EVENT: Salty Rat Canoe Trip/Overnight Camp at Mission Bay.
DATE: February 26-27, 2005

Description: We will drive to Mission Bay on Saturday afternoon, and set up camp in the City of San Diego campground adjacent to the Youth Aquatic Center. Sunday morning we will get up early, have breakfast, and pack our gear into the canoes. Then we will set off for Sail Bay (approximately 8 miles), where we will prepare a hot lunch. After lunch, the canoes will be repacked for the return paddle to the Youth Aquatic Center. We will return home late Sunday afternoon.

Requirements: Canoeing Merit Badge, or other canoeing experience.

Attendance at a planning meeting to be held on February 15.

This trip is a required qualifier for the Spring Break trip to the Colorado River.

Since this trip requires advance planning, WE MUST HAVE SIGNUPS BY THE FEBRUARY 14 TROOP MEETING.

Cost: $27-$28 (depends on number of signups), includes canoe and camping fees, 3 meals

Trek Leader: Paul Smith
