The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution offers the Arthur M. & Brenda King Eagle Scout Scholarships of $8,000, $4,000, $2,000 and $1,500 scholarships annually. The scout must fill out a two page application, write a 500 word essay on a patriotic theme, and complete a four generation ancestor chart (back to the scout's great-grandparents). The family chart is to introduce the scout to the importance of knowing his family history.

Dofflemyer Scholarship For those attending Stanford University

“Stanford University awards scholarships based on a family's demonstrated need, not on merit. Students initially receive financial aid from a general scholarship fund. However, funding is sometimes drawn from named funds like the Dofflemyer Scholarship, which gives preference to Eagle Scouts. Therefore, applicants who are Eagle Scouts need only follow the university's standard application process to demonstrate eligibility”.

Award Amount: Varies
Deadline: February 1
